

FAIRY LAWN DANCE AT MRS. FISH'S HOME

Swedish Woman's Entertainment
Is Surprise for Guests at Newport.

MANY ATTEND THE DINNER

Admiral Winslow Gives Stag
Affair on His Flagship, the Arkansas.

NEWPORT, July 26.—Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish at her dinner dance at her summer home, Crossways, this evening has as a feature fancy solo dancing by Miss Inga Sontum of Norway, who is giving instructions in dancing to many of the younger members of the summer colony here. After dinner the guests gathered in the new ballroom for general dancing. From there they were invited into the French garden, which was illuminated with fairy lamps glowing under the light of an artificial moon shining from the roof of the ballroom addition of the villa. Miss Sontum, attired in a fairy costume, which was covered with a silver scarf, appeared through the courtyard. Her first number was a fairy dance on the lawn to the music of the Casino orchestra.

Miss Sontum, in the ballroom, appeared in a Pierrot costume and danced the polka comique. Her final numbers were the Cardas and a court dance, which she gave dressed in Hungarian costume. The dances were a surprise to the guests.

Eight large tables were used for serving the dinner. All were decorated with flowers and tiny electric lights. The electrical decorative effect was carried outside of the villa also.

The dancing stopped at midnight.

SONGBIRDS FOR HAMMERSTEIN.

Son Says He Has Some Notables—Praises Evelyn Thaw's Act.

Arthur Hammerstein, who has been hunting in Europe for songbirds for his father's opera, said yesterday by the French liner La Provence, declaring that he had captured some notable ones. He found some of the singers singing. They said that they had received letters intimating that the older Hammerstein might not fulfill his obligations. Of Evelyn Thaw, who is on her way to New York by the White Star liner Olympic due on Wednesday, Mr. Hammerstein said: "Her dancing act has been the marvel of London. She is not a freak but an artist." Mrs. Thaw will appear with her dancing partner, Jack Clifford, at Hammerstein's Roof Garden and Victoria Theatre on August 4.

JERSEY HORSE SHOW HAS RECORD ENTRY

Many Exhibitors Missing in Recent Years Have Returned.

FOUR DAYS OF RACING

Alfred G. Vanderbilt Will Serve as Judge in Harness Class.

WEST END, N. J., July 26.—Many exhibitors who in the past few years have not shown at the annual horse show of the Hollywood Horse Show Association here are doing so this year, and the entry list greater, including more prominent horse fanciers than in years, indications point to a successful revival of this function, which for fifteen years has been the big society event of the north Jersey coast summer season.

The return of Alfred G. Vanderbilt, although not as an exhibitor, has brought back to the show ring many of the well known exhibitors whose stables were shown here a few years ago. Mr. Vanderbilt will serve as a judge in the harness class.

The show opens next Wednesday and continues for four days. It is the twentieth annual event. More than $10,000 in prizes are offered. The old programme is retained except that the coaching feature, which in former years was one of the most attractive features of the show, has been abandoned.

Racing Every Day.

Following a custom established a few years ago, racing will be held each day. The big race will be on Friday for the Lewisohn purse of $100. This is for galloways at catchweights, a half mile. The Wednesday and Thursday races are for ponies, minimum weight 150 pounds, for $50 and $20 purses.

The challenge cup valued at $500 known as the Patten trophy is the blue ribbon of the show. This is for the best horse suitable for a gig. The cup must be won three times in succession for permanent ownership. Mortimer L. Schiff's Baron Brown won in 1911 and Henry W. Leeds's Corinna in 1912.

Those who have donated prizes for the show include Daniel Guggenheim, Samuel M. Schaeck, Peter Hauck, Jr., Harry Content, John J. O'Donohue, S. Bryce Wing, Charles A. Baudouine, P. J. Casey and Edward M. McKean. The "Shadow Lawn" prizes donated by B. C. Greenhut and the Myron H. Oppenheim trophy are special trophies.

National Guardsmen from Sea Girt, as well as soldiers from other States, are entered in the military classes for chargers and jumpers. The riders are to appear in full dress uniform. The mounts must have been owned at least three months before competition.

420 on Entry List.

The entry list shows a total of 420 as compared with 370 last year. Post entries will be received until the champion classes only. Among the exhibitors are A. W. Atkinson, H. M. Atterbury, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Allaire, A. S. Bushnell, C. Douglas Francis, Daniel Guggenheim, Walter H. Hanby, G. Howard Duval, Myron H. Oppenheim, George G. Rohlf, William Feigler, Jr., Mrs. C. G. Babcock, Mrs. M. J. Barnett, Alden Blodgett, Louis Boury, Central Park Riding Academy, C. and H. Coombs, Henry Deegan, John Doyle, James Dooley, Jr., Harry Durand, J. W. M. Dwyer, Herman Ellis, Miss Ruth Erlanger, E. F. S. Gregory, H. L. Haughton, Miss Laura Harding, J. Lewis Hay, Jr., J. E. Henderson, E. J. Hogan, Charles Hallaway, Miss Ella F. Ivers, Miss C. Jefferson, Edward King, Charles McDougall, Edward MacFarlan, Mrs. M. Newgrove, Lieut. A. H. Barrett, S. Rangan, S. G. Rangan, Miss Constance S. Regan, P. Sanford Rose, Jr., Louis Runkel, J. I. Saks, Mrs. Martha J. Salmon, Emil Seelig, Lawrence B. Smith, Miss Belle K. Loughlin, Miss A. L. Steele, Lehan Strauss, Leonard Sullivan, T. Tucker, Rose Dorothy Webb, Fred Wettschek, Frank P. Williams and George W. Young, Jr.

Practically all of the boxes have been sold and society along the entire north Jersey coast will be represented.

Officers of the Horse Show Association are Harry Content, president; Joseph J. O'Donohue, Jr., first vice-president; James T. Hyde, second vice-president, and P. J. Casey, secretary and treasurer. The executive committee is composed of B. C. Greenhut, J. James T. Hyde and P. J. Casey.

Honorary vice-presidents are Robert A. Fairbairn, Jefferson Seligman, William Bradley, Adolph Lewishohn, Samuel M. Schaeck, Walter Lewishohn, Frank B. Barrett, J. Campbell Thompson, Harry L. Joyce, Mortimer L. Schiff, George Ebert, Jr., Felix M. Warburg, Daniel Guggenheim, Reginald C. Vanderbilt, O. P. Doigler, Henry A. McAlenahan, Sol B. Guggenheim, Mrs. A. Baudouine, P. Sanford Rose, Peter Hauck, Jr., Alfred Nathan, Leroy W. Baldwin, Frank B. Hurd, Philip Lehman and Jacob Wertheim.

Queen of Carnival.

Miss Annabel Marie Lind, who has been selected as Queen Elizabeth V. for next Thursday's carnival, is the daughter of Mrs. Mark P. Foster of New York. The choice was made after a long hunt for pretty girls up and down the New Jersey coast. Miss Lind is a splendid swimmer and is an expert at tennis and golf. She is also an actress of much ability. She is stopping at 308 Corlies avenue.

Queen Elizabeth's Court will be staged at the Broadway Theatre. The queen's maids will be Miss Selena Newcomb, daughter of the Mayor of Long Branch; Miss Ethel Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Morris of Philadelphia; Miss Lillian E. Dobbin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Emmett Dobbin of Avery place; Miss Bessie Leffer and Miss Beale Baumann, both of New York, and Miss Laura Craven of Philadelphia.

With the coronation of the queen there will also be crowned the rulers of the Dollies. Miss Edwina Taber, 6 years old, will be the queen and Gordon Biddle will be king in the queen's way to the Orient.

On the day following the double coronation Queen Elizabeth V. will hold a reception at the horse show. The queen and her court will have a box next to that of acting Governor Fielder.

Notes of the Social World.

Mrs. Hamilton McK. Twombly and her daughter, Miss Ruth Twombly, will return to New York from Newport on Tuesday and will go to the Ritz-Carlton. Afterward they will leave for the Pacific coast on their way to the Orient.
